

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Frank James and Jillene Punt have completed their summer internships in the state Centennial Office; and,

WHEREAS, Frank earned his name "Crash" for his daring and dubious motor vehicular driving abilities as exemplified by the rolling crash incident; and,

WHEREAS, Frank epitomized great organization skills and a command of time, destination and security management by transporting himself to Rapid City for the Central States Fair while leaving his suitcase in his locked pick-up at the State Capitol parking lot in Pierre; and,

WHEREAS, Jillene demonstrated extraordinary missionary zeal in promoting the South Dakota Centennial to bikers and mommas at the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally; and,

WHEREAS, Jillene also adventured to Blunt to conduct a Centennial meeting and maintained her enthusiasm and cheerfulness even though only three people, fifteen mosquitoes, and a lost dog attended the meeting; and,

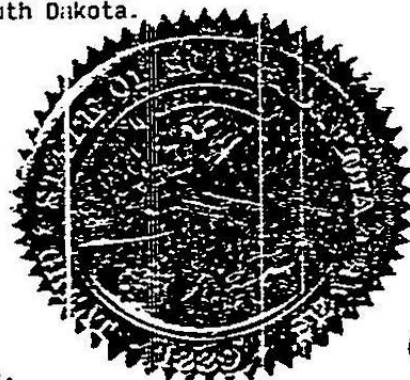

WHEREAS, September 9, 1988 is their last day in the Centennial Office as interns and, therefore, the last day we can mercilessly tease them with items such as the aforementioned; and,

WHEREAS, On their last day with us, it is fitting and proper to give honor and praise for the truly excellent hard work and many accomplishments of Frank James and Jillene Punt:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 9, 1988, as in South Dakota.

FRANK JAMES AND JILLENE PUNT DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Joyce HazelTine
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE